That's Amore Italian Tour

Tuesday, June 24th

Discover the best of Italian-inspired architecture, art, fashion, food, and cinema on a tour that will transport you to the heart of Los Angeles' Italian culture. Join us on this unforgettable tour that celebrates the incredible influence of Italian culture on Los Angeles. Our journey will explore exciting landmarks and historical spots as we learn about the struggles and triumphs of Italian immigrants and their descendants and discover the significant contributions they've made to the city's vibrant culture. Our tour will include Pasadena City Hall, a landmark inspired by the legendary Italian architect Andrea Palladio. From there, we'll head to St. Andrew's Church, where we'll see the incredible paintings by Italian artist Carlo Woostroy. Next, we'll visit the Italian Hall, the oldest remaining building from L.A.'s historic Little Italy, where we'll explore the Italian American Museum. Enjoy lunch on your own at San Antonio Winery and after, we'll head to Saint Peter's Italian Catholic Church. Our final stop will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Glendale, where you can view reproductions of artwork by Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo. It's the only place in the world where you can see the greatest works of these legends together in one location. Lunch is not included.

The Roaring 20's

A Journey Through Los Angeles'
Roaring Past

Tuesday, September 9th

Experience the splendor of the Roaring 20s with an exclusive tour that brings Los Angeles' most dazzling era to life. Our adventure begins with a docent lead tour at Angelus Temple, built in 1923 and home to the legendary evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson. Next, we visit the Central Library, completed in 1926. Inside, you'll find stunning murals, mosaics, and grand chandeliers that transport you to a time of literary elegance. At midday, we arrive at the legendary Biltmore Hotel, a beacon of Los Angeles' rise as a major metropolis. In the Rendezvous Court, enjoy a sumptuous pasta buffet featuring an assortment of pasta dishes, soup, Caesar salad, and dessert. This stunning setting has been featured in countless films and television shows, adding to its timeless allure. Our final stop is the iconic Los Angeles City Hall, completed in 1928 where we will ascend to the 27th-floor observation deck for sweeping views of the city. This tour involves moderate walking. Lunch included.
