The Roaring 20's

A Journey Through Los Angeles' Roaring Past

Tuesday, September 9th

Experience the splendor of the Roaring 20s with an exclusive tour that brings Los Angeles' most dazzling era to life. Our adventure begins with a docent lead tour at Angelus Temple, built in 1923 and home to the legendary evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson. Next, we visit the Central Library, completed in 1926. Inside, you'll find stunning murals, mosaics, and grand chandeliers that transport you to a time of literary elegance. At midday, we arrive at the legendary Biltmore Hotel, a beacon of Los Angeles' rise as a major metropolis. In the Rendezvous Court, enjoy a sumptuous pasta buffet featuring an assortment of pasta dishes, soup, Caesar salad, and dessert. This stunning setting has been featured in countless films and television shows, adding to its timeless allure. Our final stop is the iconic Los Angeles City Hall, completed in 1928 where we will ascend to the 27th-floor observation deck for sweeping views of the city. This tour involves moderate walking. Lunch included.

Bite of History

A Culinary & Cultural Journey

Tuesday, October 21st

Join us for a day that blends delicious flavors and captivating history. We'll begin in Pasadena with a cup of coffee and a fresh pastry. Next, we head to Eagle Rock for bold and flavorful Thai cuisine at one of the area's hidden gems. We will then step into Hollywood's Golden Era with lunch at the legendary Smoke House in Burbank. In the heart of the Hollywood Hills, we will pause to admire The Birth of Liberty, a mosaic by Italian artist Bruno Barsi. It spans 162 feet and is made of over 10 million hand-cut Venetian glass tiles. This is the largest American Revolution-themed mosaic in the country. Dessert will be at the original Bob's Big Boy, established in 1949 and listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Our journey ends in North Hollywood with a walk through the Television Academy's Sculpture Garden. This is a tribute to TV's greatest talents and features bronze sculptures honoring the pioneers and innovators who helped shape the medium.

Masterpieces in Light

From Stained Glass to Neon

Tuesday, November 11th

Step into a world where light becomes art in this extraordinary tour that traces the evolution of illuminated masterpieces. Our experience begins at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels to view the stained-glass windows by Franz Mayer & Co. After our morning visit, we'll take a break for lunch on our own at The Americana at Brand. In the afternoon, we will visit the Museum of Neon Art (MONA) in Glendale. At MONA, we'll explore the history, craftsmanship, and artistry behind neon signage. Continuing our journey, we then head to Forest Lawn in Glendale for a rare, behind-the-scenes experience at one of the most extensive private stained-glass collections in the world. Our final stop takes us to All Saints Episcopal Church in Pasadena, home to an extraordinary collection of Tiffany stained-glass windows. Created by the legendary Tiffany Studios. Due to the historic and sacred nature of our destinations, all stops are subject to availability.
