Bake My Day

A Delicious LA Bakery Adventure

Wednesday, March 18th

Rise, shine, and bring your sweet tooth, because Los Angeles is going to Bake Your Day! Each stop will be filled with sweet surprises. Enjoy a hand-picked lineup of Asian, Mexican, Armenian, Cuban, and European-inspired bakeries (stops may vary). Expect warm breads, fluffy buns, fresh conchas, buttery pastries, baklava, sourdoughs, and more. Midday, we'll settle in for a cozy historic lunch at the legendary Tam O' Shanter, one of LA's oldest and tastiest institutions. We keep the samples light so you don't get overloaded and instead of getting stuffed, you'll get stuff to take home! Fresh baked goods from our stops are included with the tour. Lunch is Included.

Springtime Magic at The Huntington

A World Tour of Gardens

Friday, April 3rd

This leisurely-paced day will emphasize The Huntington's world-renowned gardens. Guests will have extended time to explore over 3,000 roses in the Rose Garden and koi ponds, bonsai and serene bridges within the Japanese Garden. The tour will also feature the Chinese Garden, as well as the Palm, Jungle, Subtropical, and Herb Gardens. The Library Manuscript Gallery is under renovation, but guests may enjoy select gallery spaces spotlighting "The Blue Boy," "Pinkie" and rotating American and European art exhibits. Enjoy lunch on your own at one of the onsite options.
